

PRESS RELEASE

ALEKSANDRA MACZYNSKA JOINS BETTER FINANCE AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Brussels, 19 July 2017 – BETTER FINANCE has the pleasure to announce that Aleksandra Maczynska has just joined its Brussels team as number two.

Aleksandra Maczynska is coming from Warsaw, Poland, where she was the Deputy Director of the International Relations and Communication Department of the Polish consumer and competition watchdog.

She studied at the Faculty of Management at the Poznan University of Economics and at the Warsaw School of Economics. She has also a vast experience in management of international projects, e.g. EU funded capacity building projects. As a Fellow of the Robert Bosch Foundation Programme for the Young Executives From the Public Sector, she worked at the Division for World Bank International Monetary Fund, Debt Issues and International Finance Structure at the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development. She was an expert at various EU Council's Working Parties such as the WP on Financial Services and WP on Competitiveness and Growth, as well as European Commission's Advisory Committees.

Guillaume Prache, managing Director of BETTER FINANCE said: "I am confident that Aleksandra will considerably reinforce the BETTER FINANCE Brussels Team, which will benefit from her strong experience in consumer protection at a Member State level. She has already been selected by the European Commission as one of the expert members of its "Financial Services User Group" (FSUG)."
